2 . all I talk about is soccer

3 . I don't have anything else to do

(例1) I think that personal relationships have improved, because we can get in touch with others at any time and there is almost no risk of missing others at the appointed place. New technologies (cellular phones, especially) are a great blessing to our communication.

(例2) I think that personal relationships have weakened, because there is a tendency among us to depend too much on new technologies and not to meet others face-to-face. New technologies (cellular phones, especially) are useful, but not a blessing to our personal relationships.
